

plugged

The 6th Annual Polish-Canadian Business and Professional Society Dinner

(Top L to R) Guests at the Head Table included Anthony Blak-Vice President and Jerry Barycki-President of the Polish Canadian Business and Professional Association of Windsor, Mayor Mike Hurst, Herb Gray-Deputy Prime Minister, Andrzej Kaczmarek-Trade Commissioner of the Republic of Poland, Msgr. W. Wnuk-Pastor Emeritus Holy Trinity Church, Rick Limoges, and June Cox-Chair, International Relation Committee, City of Windsor.

Recently the Caboto Club hosted the 6th Annual Polish-Canadian Business and Professional Society dinner. Keynote speaker, the Honourable Herb Gray, and Andrzej Kaczmarek, Trade Commissioner of the Republic of Poland, discussed the cooperative relationship between Canada and Poland and the establishment of the economic relationship between the two countries. Jerry Barycki, President of the Association in Windsor, inaugurated this annual event six years ago in order to get the professionals in Windsor in tune with the free market in Poland since the fall of communism.

Customer Appreciation Day at the Olde Victoria Tavern

Appreciation Day at the Olde Victoria Tavern occurs several times a year, and only the "regulars" receive special invitations. They are however, permitted to bring a few extra friends which recently evolved into a packed house at the Olde Vic with over 150 bodies out for good time. The guests enjoyed free give-aways and live music from "Blue Northern."

TravelStar Launches Executive Travel

The company has recently announced a new service which specifically caters to executive travel needs. VIP clients now have the option of 5-14 passenger turboprop/jets available for charter from Toronto, London, Windsor and Detroit Metro International airports. Departures to and from destinations in Canada and the United States are available.

Halsall Associates Announces New Manager

The engineering firm has appointed Dale Wannamaker, P. Eng. as Manager of the Windsor Office. Wannamaker will provide leadership for all of Halsall's projects in this area including building audits, capital planning, condition evaluation and restoration. Past projects for the company include structural engineering for Casino Windsor and the Cleary Auditorium and engineering designs for the wall systems at the Art Gallery of Windsor and the Hilton Hotel refurbishment.

Windsor Brew Factory Celebrates 9th Anniversary

Owners Dave and Geraldine Carter are celebrating nine years in business. Recently, a Cask Brewing System in the was installed in the company which has malt extracts and grains imported from England. The Cask brewmasters have developed over 100 recipes for the Windsor Brew Factory, aiming to ensure that every customer will be satisfied. In 1992, the Carter's expanded further to carry the Brew King line of wine kits.

Canada Post Names New Retail Business Manager

The Canada Post Corporation recently announced the appointment of Ken Bashura as Retail Business Manager to Windsor. Bashura will be responsible for supervising 50 Canada Post and private sector postal outlets in and around the Windsor area. Additionally, he will be working to develop stronger relationships with business and community leaders in this area. A graduate of the University of Windsor, Bashura has been a Retail Representative for the company for the past 10 years.

Wilson Walker Announces New Partner

New Partner Brian P. Nolan, has extensive expertise in the areas of Labour Relations and Employment Law, Education Law, and Health Care Law. He represents school boards, hospitals, and industry throughout Ontario. Brian will Chair the Labour and Employment Law Section.