

Alexandre-Édouard Kierzkowski

Member of Parliament for Saint-Hyacinthe (1867-1870)

The first Polish-Canadian Member of the House of Commons in the first Parliament, at the birth of the Dominion of Canada in 1867. He was also a Polish patriot, a civil engineer, a military man and an advocate of a new land credit system.

To promote Alexandre-Édouard Kierzkowski among the Polish community in Canada, Polish-Canadian Business and Professional Association of Windsor handed out his portraits to various organizations in 2010 and 2011.

Presentation to Krzysztof Tomczak, President, Polish Army Veterans Association of America, post in Toronto, with presence of Minister Jan Ciechanowski, Polish Veterans Affairs (Poland) and Krystyna Sroczynska, near the Katyn Monument in Toronto, 2010. Photograph courtesy of Jerry Barycki archive.

Presentation to Wojciech Dziegiel, Consul RP in Toronto, Consulate General in Toronto, September 25, 2010. Photograph courtesy of Krzysztof Filaber.

Presentation to A. Szuba, President, Polish Alliance of Canada, Park Paderewski Park, near Toronto, September 13, 2010. Photograph courtesy of Jerry Barycki archive.

Presentation to Hieronim Teresinski, President, Polish Engineers Association of Canada, Consulate General of Poland in Toronto, September 25, 2010. Photograph courtesy of Krzysztof Filaber.

Presentation to Edward Sliz, President, Canadian Polish Congress, Montreal Branch, Montreal, September 17, 2010. Photograph courtesy of Jerry Barycki archive.

Presentation to Antoni Jedlinski, President, Canadian Polish Club of Chatham, Chatham, November 11, 2010. Photograph courtesy of Jerry Barycki archive.

Presentation to Copernicus Lodge Library staff, Toronto, January 9, 2011. Photograph courtesy of Jerry Barycki archive.

Presentation to Zenon Kosiniak-Kamysz, Ambassador of Poland to Canada and Teraesa Berezowska, President, Canadian Polish Congress, Toronto, January 9, 2011. Photograph courtesy of Stanisław Stolarczyk.

Presentation to Ted Fularczuk, President, JPPI Cultural Centre, Mississauga, January 12, 2011. Photograph courtesy of Jerry Barycki archive.

Compiled by Jerry Barycki, April, 20, 2020.