RADWANEK EXHIBIT OPENING
Friday, November 29, 2019
10:00 - 11:00 AM

LEDDY LIBRARY
Student Research Collaboratory
University of Windsor
401 Sunset Ave, Windsor ON

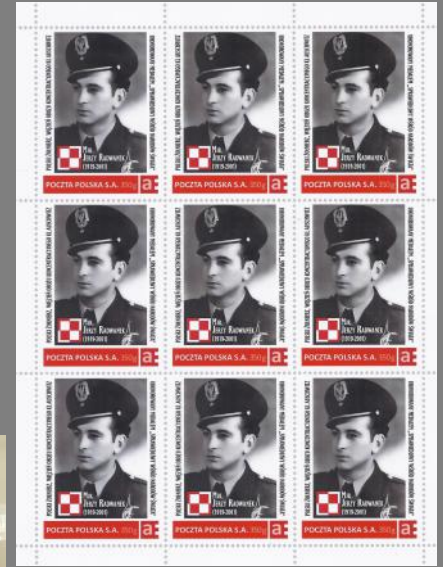

The Polish-Canadian Students' Association and the Polish-Canadian Business and Professional Association of Windsor will host the Radwanek display at Leddy Library November 29 - December 4.

The exhibit shares the story of Jerzy Radwanek, a Major Navigator-Pilot who was a Polish prisoner of the KL Auschwitz concentration camp while being a member of the Camp Resistance Movement, awarded the title of "Righteous Among the Nations."

Please join us for a public ceremony to open the exhibition on Friday, November 29 at 10 a.m. in the Leddy Library. The exhibition will be on display on the Student Research Collaboratory until Wednesday, December 4.

On November 29, 2019, at 10:00 a.m., the Polish-Canadian Students' Association and the Polish-Canadian Business and Professional Association of Windsor opened an exhibit at the Leddy Library of the University of Windsor, sharing the story of Jerzy Radwanek, a Polish pilot and member of the KL Auschwitz Camp Resistance Movement (1940-1944), awarded the title of "Righteous Among the Nations". The opening and closing remarks were made by Ms. Karen Pillon, Associate University Librarian of the Leddy Library at the University of Windsor. Remarks were also made by Mr. Brian Masse, Member of Parliament, Mr. Jerry Barycki, President of the Polish-Canadian Business and Professional Association, and Ms. Julia Zalewski, President of the Polish Canadian Students' Association. This display was significant because it showcased a true war hero of Polish descent. This display coincides with the 100th anniversary of Radwanek's birthday this year.
